

Don't Be Afraid to Switch to Averta!

No extra work is required on your part to begin saving time and money when switching to Averta as your employee benefits insurance servicing partner. We make your new savings and efficiency management change-over as easy as can be. Our no-cost business solutions include our written monthly timeline of insurance services that save you time and money. These solutions will also help you better manage your employees and HR tasks, which would typically take countless hours of work each week. This program will improve your employee satisfaction rate and help reduce your employee turn-over as well. Let's start working together, to streamline your business so it can grow and thrive in today's economy.

You have nothing to lose!

Our no-cost services go beyond the employee benefits options themselves. Our Efficiency, Growth and Savings program adds instant value to your business, saving your business and your valued employees time and hard-earned money.

What's the next step?

Let's connect in person, over a quick call, or on a private web meeting! We are eager to present the value that Averta seeks to bring to your business. Learn more about this program at www.avertainsurance.com, or call us at 626.826.0048.
